

The image shows a blue-tinted background with snow sculptures. In the top left, the text 'BALTIC SNOW CALL' is written in large, bold, blue letters. The sculptures include a figure with long, thin limbs and a large, rounded head, and another sculpture that looks like a stylized animal or figure with a pointed top.

BALTIC SNOW CALL

MEDIA RELEASE

INTERNATIONAL SNOW SCULPTING CONTEST BALTIC SNOW CALL TO NALLIKARI 21.-25.2.2018

Baltic Snow Call is a snow sculpting contest which brings top sculptors of Baltic Sea area to compete for gold and glory at Nallikari, Oulu Finland. BSC is an invitational contest; we select ten three-member teams with international sculpting merit. BSC is a unique winter event and part of official event calendar of International International Association of Snow and Ice Sculpture (AISNG).

Event is organised by Ikkitalvi Union of Snow & Ice Sculptors in co-operation with Nallikari Seaside and Vauhtipuisto. The sculpting site is located right next to Nallikari Holiday Village and Nallikari Winter Village. The contest is supervised by globally experienced professional sculptor Janne Andberg and Art Director of the event will be Anna Koivukangas, a sculptor from Oulu. Juhani Lillberg from AISNG will lead the contest jury and acts as a patron of Baltic Snow Call.

Baltic Snow Call begins by contest briefing on Wednesday and culminates to closure celebration on Saturday evening. The awards ceremony will be held at Sunday at the contest site.

Press material from web sites: <http://snowcall.fi/media-press/>

Further information:

Janne Andberg
Baltic Snow Call, Head of the Contest
janne@snowcall.fi
+358 44 300 4803
www.snowcall.fi

Sirpa Walter
Nallikari Seaside Oy
sirpa.walter@nallikari.fi
+358 44 703 1327
www.nallikari.fi